

Use the word in brackets to form a new word that fits into each blank.

1. The chairman had made his introductory statement before the real proceedings began. (INTRODUCE)
2. You can't really/realistically expect to win every game of the season. (REAL)
3. This is a very quiet residential neighbourhood. (RESIDE)
4. When I finished school, I decided to start a career in journalism. (JOURNAL)
5. The likelihood of getting caught stealing some apples from your neighbour's garden is very low. (LIKE)
6. She won a scholarship from a very prestigious American university. (SCHOLAR)
7. He's an unmarried man and very handsome too. So, I guess you could date him. (MARRY)
8. The two countries agreed to cooperate in certain sections of the economy. (OPERATE)
9. The supervisor came into the stadium and listened to what the players had to say. (SUPERVISE)
10. He is a nice child but often disobeys/disobedient when it comes to following rules. (OBEY)
11. The rent is paid/payable in advance. (PAY)
12. There was an unwillingness on his side to cooperate with the authorities. (WILLING)
13. He has not seen his children since his imprisonment. (PRISON)
14. Our team scored the decisive/deciding goal in the last minute of the match. (DECIDE)
15. Some pollutants end up in the atmosphere and ultimately in the air that we breathe. (POLLUTE)
16. The government has left many citizens uninformed/informed/ about the new tax laws. (INFORM) misinformed
17. According to the timetable/timeline there will be no more English lessons this week. (TIME)
18. It must be a misunderstanding. I never intended to offend anyone. (UNDERSTAND)
19. The President of the United States is empowered to appoint justices to the Supreme Court. (POWER)
20. Over the years the conflict intensified, and more and more people were killed. (INTENSE)

KEY

1. The chairman had made his introductory statement before the real proceedings began. (INTRODUCE)
2. You can't realistically expect to win every game of the season. (REAL)
3. This is a very quiet residential neighbourhood. (RESIDE)
4. When I finished school, I decided to start a career in journalism. (JOURNAL)
5. The likelihood of getting caught stealing some apples from your neighbour's garden is very low. (LIKE)
6. She won a scholarship from a very prestigious American university. (SCHOLAR)
7. He's an unmarried man and very handsome too. So, I guess you could date him. (MARRY)
8. The two countries agreed to cooperate in certain sections of the economy. (OPERATE)
9. The supervisor came into the stadium and listened to what the players had to say. (SUPERVISE)
10. He is a nice child but often disobedient when it comes to following rules. (OBEY)
11. The rent is payable in advance. (PAY)
12. There was an unwillingness on his side to cooperate with the authorities. (WILLING)
13. He has not seen his children since his imprisonment. (PRISON)
14. Our team scored the decisive/deciding goal in the last minute of the match. (DECIDE)
15. Some pollutants end up in the atmosphere and ultimately in the air that we breathe. (POLLUTE)
16. The government has left many citizens uninformed about the new tax laws. (INFORM)
17. According to the timetable there will be no more English lessons this week. (TIME)
18. It must be a misunderstanding. I never intended to offend anyone. (UNDERSTAND)
19. The President of the United States is empowered to appoint justices to the Supreme Court. (POWER)
20. Over the years the conflict intensified, and more and more people were killed. (INTENSE)